Additional information

Please note that during the days of the Symposium the city of Verona will experience a very high number of visitors due to the concurrent Arena Opera Festival 2026. Hotel availability will therefore be particularly limited and hotel prices significantly higher, especially starting from Thursday evening (June 25), because of the performances scheduled over the weekend.

Participants are therefore strongly advised to make their hotel reservations well in advance, also in order to benefit from better rates.

Those interested in attending one of the performances at the Arena may purchase tickets at the following link:
<https://www.arena.it/arena-opera-festival/spettacoli/>

The performances scheduled at the Arena are: Aida (June 25), Nabucco (June 26), Traviata (June 27).

The conference sessions will conclude by 6:00 PM on Thursday, June 25, 2026, also to allow participants the opportunity to attend evening performances if they wish.

Optional sightseeing trip – Friday, June 26, 2026

On Friday, June 26, 2026, an optional sightseeing trip will be organized, likely to a location on Lake Garda (Sirmione or a similar destination). Registrations will be collected starting from late April/early May, once the list of participants is known. The cost of the excursion and the procedures for registration and payment of participation fees will be announced shortly on the IASJF website (<https://www.iasjf.net>)
